SUBJECT: INVITATION: Investigative Support Meeting from 23-25 July in Bangladesh

PRIORITY: Normal

Dear Colleagues,

We are pleased to inform you that INTERPOL Environmental Security (ENS), would like to invite you to participate in an Investigative Support Meeting from 23-25 July 2018 in Dhaka, Bangladesh.

The meeting is a follow up from the meeting held in Singapore in May 2017 regarding the illicit trade in turtles and tortoises. The meeting will bring together specialized law enforcement agencies working on wildlife crime from Bangladesh, India, Malaysia and Thailand to discuss the targets that have been identified and follow up on ongoing investigations.

Please find attached a formal invitation letter authorized by INTERPOL Executive Director of Police Services.

Each country wishing to participate is asked to nominate three officers to attend the course. One officer from the customs department or airport police and two from investigative units dealing with the illegal turtle and tortoise trade.

To complete the enrolment process, please submit the following documents before 15 June 2017 to environmentalcrime@interpol.int via your national central bureau:

- An enrolment form for each participant
- A copy of each participant's passport
- A copy of each participant's CV

Financial Support

INTERPOL will support the travel and full board costs of the nominated participants. This will include air tickets, accommodation, airport transfer and all meals. The air tickets and hotel will be pre-booked by INTERPOL.

For further information about this meeting, please contact INTERPOL Environmental Security at environmentalcrime@interpol.int or call +65 6550 3665.

We look forward to hearing from you.

Best regards,

INTERPOL

Subject: Investigative Support Meeting
Dhaka, Bangladesh, 23-25 July 2018

Dear colleagues,

INTERPOL invites you to an Investigative Support Meeting, to take place in Dhaka, Bangladesh, from 23 to 25 July 2018.

Background

This meeting is a follow up from the Investigative Support Meeting that was held in Singapore in May 2017. The meeting will bring together specialized law enforcement agencies working on wildlife crime from Bangladesh, India, Malaysia and Thailand to discuss the targets that have been identified and get an update on ongoing investigations, with a primary focus on the illicit trade of turtles and tortoises.

Objectives

The primary objectives of this meeting are to:

- Enhance cooperation between the countries;
- Maintain regular information exchange;
- Status update on trade routes, modus operandi and border markets; and
- Follow up on previously identified key priority targets and turtle / tortoise trafficking networks.

INTERPOL looks forward to your participation in Dhaka, Bangladesh.

Yours sincerely,

Tim Morris
Executive Director Police Services

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Registration

We kindly request that you nominate three officers to attend the meeting from your country: one officer from the customs department or airport police and two from investigative units dealing with illegal turtle and tortoise trade.

Please send confirmation of participation and your nominations via your INTERPOL National Central Bureau by 15 June 2018 to environmentalcrime@interpol.int. You will need to provide the enclosed enrolment form duly completed with copies of passports for nominated participants.

Expenses

INTERPOL will support the travel and full board costs for the nominated participants. This includes air tickets, accommodation, airport transfer and all meals. The air tickets and hotel will be pre-booked by INTERPOL.

Working Language

English will be the working language of the meeting. No interpretation will be provided.

Disclaimers

Based on the agreement with the donor, each participant will undergo a vetting process (Leahy Amendment) by the respective U.S. Embassies based in each candidate's country of citizenship. Please note that the participation of selected participants is contingent upon a positive outcome of the vetting process.

The Organization reminds external participants that it is their responsibility to obtain any necessary visas, to take out adequate travel insurance, and to follow the health and safety recommendations for the country of destination.

The Organization cannot be held liable for any damages or injuries participants may sustain themselves or cause to others during their round-trip journey and during their stay in the country where the activity is being held (except specific cases of events and conferences).

The Organization shall not cover the participant's travel and accommodation costs if the aforementioned conditions are not met.

Kindly note that in line with the INTERPOL Policy on Mission and Travel revised and implemented on 16 October 2014, when transport, accommodation and meal costs are paid for directly by the Organization, no further financial assistance should be provided.
