BILLING CODE 7020–02–P

INTERNATIONAL TRADE COMMISSION

Notice of Receipt of Complaint; Solicitation of Comments Relating to the Public Interest

AGENCY: U.S. International Trade Commission.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: Notice is hereby given that the U.S. International Trade Commission has received a complaint entitled Certain Semiconductor Devices, Computing Products Containing the Same, and Components Thereof II, DN 3955; the Commission is soliciting comments on any public interest issues raised by the complaint or complainant's filing pursuant to the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Lisa R. Barton, Secretary to the Commission, U.S. International Trade Commission, 500 E Street SW, Washington, DC 20436, telephone (202) 205–2000. The public version of the complaint can be accessed on the Commission's Electronic Document Information System (EDIS) at https://edis.usitc.gov. For help accessing EDIS, please email EDIS3Help@usitc.gov.

General information concerning the Commission may also be obtained by accessing its internet server at United States International Trade Commission (USITC) at https://www.usitc.gov . The public record for this investigation may be viewed on the Commission's Electronic Document Information System (EDIS) at https://edis.usitc.gov. Hearing-impaired persons are advised that information on this matter can be obtained by contacting the Commission's TDD terminal on (202) 205–1810.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Commission has received a complaint and a submission pursuant to § 210.8(b) of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure filed on behalf of Tower Semiconductor Ltd.; Tower U.S. Holdings, Inc.; Newport Fab, LLC d/b/a Tower Semiconductor Newport Beach; and Tower Semiconductor San Antonio, Inc. on November 24, 2026. The complaint alleges violations of section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930 (19 U.S.C. 1337) in the importation into the United States, the sale for importation, and the sale within the United States after importation of certain semiconductor devices, computing products containing the same, and components thereof II. The complaint names as respondents: GlobalFoundries Inc. of Cayman Islands; GlobalFoundries (Netherlands) of The Netherlands; and GlobalFoundries U.S. Inc. of Malta, NY. The complainant requests that the Commission issue a limited exclusion order, cease and desist orders and impose a bond upon respondents' alleged infringing articles during the 60-day Presidential review period pursuant to 19 U.S.C. 1337(j).

Proposed respondents, other interested parties, members of the public, and interested government agencies are invited to file comments on any public interest issues raised by the complaint or § 210.8(b) filing. Comments should address whether issuance of the relief specifically requested by the complainant in this investigation would affect the public health and welfare in the United States, competitive conditions in the United States economy, the production of like or directly competitive articles in the United States, or United States consumers.

In particular, the Commission is interested in comments that:

(i) explain how the articles potentially subject to the requested remedial orders are used in the United States;

(ii) identify any public health, safety, or welfare concerns in the United States relating to the requested remedial orders;

(iii) identify like or directly competitive articles that complainant, its licensees, or third parties make in the United States which could replace the subject articles if they were to be excluded;

(iv) indicate whether complainant, complainant's licensees, and/or third party suppliers have the capacity to replace the volume of articles potentially subject to the requested exclusion order and/or a cease and desist order within a commercially reasonable time; and

(v) explain how the requested remedial orders would impact United States consumers.

Written submissions on the public interest must be filed no later than by close of business, eight calendar days after the date of publication of this notice in the Federal Register. There will be further opportunities for comment on the public interest after the issuance of any final initial determination in this investigation. Any written submissions on other issues must also be filed by no later than the close of business (5:15 p.m.),[1] eight calendar days after publication of this notice in the Federal Register. Complainant(s) may file replies to any written submissions no later than three calendar days after the date on which the written submissions were due. Notwithstanding § 201.14(a) of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure, the deadlines for written submissions and replies shall be counted by calendar days starting with the first calendar day following the Federal Register publication date or the due date for written submissions, respectively. The provisions of § 201.14(a) regarding the last day of the period still apply concerning the due date of any filings. No other submissions will be accepted, unless requested by the Commission. Any submissions and replies filed in response to this Notice are limited to five (5) pages in length, inclusive of attachments.

Persons filing written submissions must file the original document electronically on or before the deadlines stated above. Submissions should refer to the docket number (''Docket No. 3955'') in a prominent place on the cover page and/or the first page. (See Handbook for Electronic Filing Procedures, Electronic Filing Procedures [2]). Please note the Secretary's Office will accept only electronic filings unless an exemption is granted. Filings must be made through the Commission's Electronic Document Information System (EDIS, https://edis.usitc.gov.) Persons with questions regarding filing should contact the Secretary at EDIS3Help@usitc.gov.

Any person desiring to submit a document to the Commission in confidence must request confidential treatment. All such requests should be directed to the Secretary to the Commission and must include a full statement of the reasons why the Commission should grant such treatment. See 19 CFR 201.6. Documents for which confidential treatment by the Commission is properly sought will be treated accordingly. All information, including confidential business information and documents for which confidential treatment is properly

DEPARTMENT OF LABOR

Employee Benefits Security Administration

Advisory Council on Employee Welfare and Pension Benefit Plans; Notice of Charter Renewal

In accordance with section 512(a)(1) of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA) and the provisions of the Federal Advisory Committee Act (FACA) and its implementing regulations issued by the General Services Administration, the Secretary of Labor has approved the renewal of the charter for the Advisory Council on Employee Welfare and Pension Benefit Plans (ERISA Advisory Council). The renewed charter will expire two years from its filing date. The committee will report to the Secretary of Labor and function solely as an advisory body, in compliance with the provisions of FACA.

The ERISA Advisory Council will advise the Secretary of Labor on technical aspects of the provisions of ERISA and provide reports and/or recommendations each year on its findings to the Secretary of Labor. The committee will be composed of fifteen members appointed by the Secretary. Not more than eight members of the ERISA Advisory Council will be of the same political party. Three of the members will be representatives of employee organizations (at least one of whom will be a representative of an organization whose members are participants in a multiemployer plan); three of the members will be representatives of employers (at least one of whom will be a representative of employers maintaining or contributing to multiemployer plans); three members will be representatives appointed from the general public (one of whom will be a person representing those receiving benefits from a pension plan); and there will be one representative each from the fields of accounting, actuarial counseling, corporate trust, insurance, investment counseling, and investment management.

For further information, contact Colleen Brisport Sequeda, ERISA Advisory Council Executive Secretary, Employee Benefits Security Administration, U.S. Department of Labor, 200 Constitution Avenue NW, Suite N–5623, Washington, DC 20210, telephone (202) 693–1000 ext. 11078 or via email to ERISAAdvisoryCouncil@dol.gov.

Signed at Washington, DC, this 18th day of November, 2026.

Daniel Aronowitz,

Assistant Secretary, Employee Benefits Security Administration.
